

National Rankings

Effective February 13, 2023

Due to the National Ranking points being awarded from a team's score at a competition, the only scores that will be included in National Rankings will be from events and divisions that are use the OCS Scoring System.

Events and Divisions that do not use the OCS Scoring System will not be included in the our National Rankings effective February 13, 2023.

Previous points that have been awarded this season will not be reviewed or removed regardless of which scoring system the team competed on at the time the points were awarded.
