

Small Program Mega Nationals FAQ's

What is “Small Program Mega Nationals”?

Small Program Mega Nationals is a premier end-of-season championship event designed specifically for small gyms and programs. The event features elite competition, major awards, cash prizes, athlete experiences, and competition hosted inside Universal Orlando Resort theme parks.

This is a guaranteed two-day event for ALL divisions with a 50/50 scoring split.

When is “Super Program Mega Nationals”?

April 29-30, 2027

How can my program/gym attend the event?

You will be able to earn bids through the Open Championship Series Event Producer network. Both paid and At-large bids will be available.

Do I have to have a bid to attend the event?

No, but those not receiving a bid will be full price per athlete.

Athlete pricing will be announced soon.

How are gyms split and defined as a small program?

Gyms will be defined into two division groups:

A) 1-74 athletes

B) 75-125 athletes

Gym athlete counts will include prep athletes for the purposes of this event, however, only elite teams will participate in the event.

Where does this event take place?

THIS EVENT TAKES PLACE INSIDE UNIVERSAL ORLANDO THEME PARKS

Because the competition is held inside Universal Orlando Resort theme parks, valid park admission is REQUIRED for every athlete, coach, and spectator attending the event.

There is no separate “competition-only” admission option.

Is this a Stay-to-Play event?

No.

Small Program Mega Nationals is NOT a Stay-to-Play event. You are free to stay wherever you choose.

However, discounted lodging packages through the Open Championship Series will be available and can include spectator entry packages.

More lodging information coming soon.
